Dear [employer's name],

Note on prefixes: Gender specific titles, such as Mr., Mrs, or Ms., should not be used. Instead, list first and last name.

First Paragraph

- Introduce yourself.
- State the position title, job number and where you saw the ad (include date).
- Indicate if someone recommended you. Note: You should always get approval from your referral to use their name in your cover letter.

Second Paragraph

- Indicate your interests – include your career interests and your interests in the specific organization.
- Identify with the product/service (personal experience with the company).
- What you read or heard about the employer – only positive things.
- Discuss opportunities to practice your profession.

Third Paragraph

- Highlight why the employer would be interested in you.
- Some things to talk about: experience, academic credentials, honors. Remember, this is not a rehash of your resume so include items not specifically covered in your resume.
- Key points from your resume (elaborate on them; tell a little story).
- Keep statements factual.

Fourth Paragraph (If applicable)

- Can provide explanations for what is on resume (example: low GPA – you worked while in school).
- Always make positive statements about your credentials.

Final Paragraph

- Indicate the follow-up you plan to do.
- Thank the person for their time and consideration.
- If you indicate that you will contact them in the near future, make sure you do it!

Sincerely,

Your name
